Details from Follow-up:

on 3/29/21 Specialist returned from vacation and immediately followed up with the agency about this report. Email sent to Ronissa Adams on 3-29 inquiring where staff was located and the ratio during this incident, and what happened that caused him to want to run. Ronissa responded on Tuesday 3-30 "I have been informed that ██████████ became upset when the unit was lining up to go inside, staff took the rest of the unit inside and two staff and a nurse remained outside with ██████████ and he ended up getting on the awning and jumped over the fence. But when the elopement occurred it
