Details from Follow-up: Specialists visited PRTC unannounced at 9pm on 4-16-21 and inspected seclusion rooms and found no sharp edges or safety concerns, however, agency was out of ratio on the East unit (2:17). Specialist emailed Ronissa Adams on 4-15-21 and requested Seclusion room logs for April. Logs were sent and reviewed. According to the logs, no child was in the rooms for longer than 30 minutes. Specialist will follow up with children listed on the logs. On 4-21-21 Specialists Carlton and Reader interviewed 3 children who were listed on the seclusion logs in April and none stated they were in the rooms for longer than an "about an hour" or that there were any safety concerns with the room. Licensing unfounded the complaints about the seclusion rooms but founded the complaint about ratio.
