Type of Incident: Injury

Incident Description:

IC [REDACTED] was standing in cafeteria upset. Shift supervisor(HC) and recreational therapist were in kitchen watching her. IC [REDACTED] took a step back as recreational therapist moved closer and shift supervisor(HC) moved to cafeteria. IC [REDACTED] quickly grabbed coffee pot smashing it. Recreational Therapist and shift supervisor(HC) acted quickly to get piece of glass away from IC [REDACTED]. IC [REDACTED] cut left wrist with glass while recreational therapist and supervisor were trying to get it out of her hand.

Agency's Interim Corrective Action:

Video review occurred that day to identify areas of corrections along with areas of improvement. Areas of correction: First, the sliding door for the serving area should have been closed after breakfast. The coffee pot should have been placed furthest away from the opening of the serving area due to it being made out of glass. Areas of Improvement: team response resulted in prevention of further injuries. The team continues to emulate and recognize the power of relationship with our students. This situation depicted the programs leading value of relationships are the true agent of change
