PHONE REPORT

Primary Narrative By Kimberly Abels, 04/16/20 10:17

Battery 3rd

ON April 16, 2020 I, Deputy Abels, was assigned a phone report for a battery already occurred. Alexis Blakemore reported she had been battered at the Youth Home Group Inc. at 20400 Colonel Glenn Road on Tuesday the 14th around 1445 hours. Blakemore stated [redacted] had two strikes and was inside his room when he became angry asking repeatedly why he had two strikes. [redacted] was asked to go into his room or to go to time out. [redacted] came out of the room and threw a water bottle striking Blakemore in the chest. [redacted] was told to go to time out and he then close fist punched Blakemore in her face and kicked her legs twice before being placed into time out. I asked Blakemore why she had not reported the incident when it occurred and she said she did the following day as the managers had left. Blakemore's manager advised her from there what to do. Blakemore was provided her report number and advised of the warrant process. Blakemore did not report any injuries.
