Battery 3rd

On Wednesday 5-27-20 at 1635 hours, I made contact with Sebrina Patton and [REDACTED] at the Southwest Office in reference to a battery report.

Patton said she is a therapist at the youth home located at 20400 Colonel Glenn road. Patton said [REDACTED] a youth under her care was battered by [REDACTED] and she wanted to file a report.

I then made contact with [REDACTED] who said on Friday 5-22-20 he was playing basketball outside the Crestview house when [REDACTED] slapped him. [REDACTED] said later that day he was attacked again by [REDACTED] while watching television inside the youth home. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] punched him several times in the face with a closed fist. [REDACTED] said he notified staff but was told that they would need to view the video cameras. [REDACTED] said nothing was ever said or done after advising staff. [REDACTED] did not have any injuries and refused medical attention.

Patton said she wanted to file a report so she could follow-up with the Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

Patton and [REDACTED] was given the report number and advised to contact PCSO if further was needed.

DHS was notified of this incident via fax.
