Narrative & Statements

Narrative - Swiger, Canaan - 1/20/2021 4:21:00 PM (Initial)

On January 20, 2021 at approximately 1612 hours I (Officer Swiger) was dispatched to Millcreek of Arkansas in reference to a disturbance at the facility called in by Chief Executive Officer Brady Serafin.

Upon arrival I noticed a couple of workers along with Mr. Serafin outside in front of the front door of the facility talking with another male which appeared to be upset. I approached the individual and identified him as Mr. Blake Omar. Mr. Omar was upset about his money from working at this facility. I advised him that he couldn't stay here due to the fact they had asked him to leave and that he no longer worked at this facility. Mr. Omar had calmed down and Mr. Serafin advised him of his money that would be hitting his bank on the next pay period.

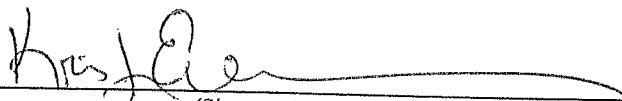

Mr. Omar apologized and left on his own. Mr. Serafin stated that before we had got there he was yelling and was not listening to anything he had to say so he called us. I advised Mr. Serafin that if Mr. Omar came back on the property to give us a call and we would arrest Mr. Omar for Criminal Trespass.
