Battery

On 05/25/2021 at approximately 1015 hours Deputy Tallent and Deputy Johnson were dispatched to 20400 Colonel Glenn Road in reference to a battery.

Upon arrival, contact was made with Skye Tyler. Ms. Tyler (Youth Home Counselor) stated while working in the Mabee house approximately at 1000 hours _____ a student resident at the facility, was acting out and had made threats toward Ms. Tyler by throwing a towel striking her with it. Ms. Tyler stated that _____ came back into the common area and struck her in the back of her head with a closed fist. Ms. Tyler stated that she wanted to press charges against the student and that she may have a knot on the back of her head later due to how hard she was hit.

Upon walking into the common area of the Mabee House _____ stated "you're looking for me, I hit her". When asked why _____ struck someone else _____ stated "because I have had enough of her". _____ stated that _____ hit Skye in the head with a closed fist. _____ stated that _____ was upset at Ms. Tyler for the way she was talking to other students in the residence. _____ stated that _____ knew what _____ did was wrong but _____ was having a bad day, Ms. Tyler stated she was tired.

Robert Barnett with Pulaski County Juvenile Courts was contacted and advised of the incident, Robert Barnett advised to cite _____ with a June 2, 2021 court date in juvenile court.

Deputy Tallent and Deputy Johnson gave Ms. Tyler the incident report number. _____ was provided a copy of the arrest disposition report and court date. Deputy Tallent made phone contact with Legal guardian and advised her of the incident and court date.
