Purpose of Visit: Psychiatric Residential Buildings and Grounds

Regulations Out of Compliance:

Regulation	Serious Violation	Discussion/Observation	Due Date	Correction Date	Corrected On Site
R911.15.f	No	A ripped-up clothing item was found in a bedroom that had been cut giving it a long strip that could be used as a ligature. Director of Nursing, Trevor England, removed the ligature threat from the room immediately.	3/1/2022	3/1/2022	No
R912.4	No	Several restrooms in the unit bedrooms were seen in poor condition. Restrooms had hair in the sinks, discarded toilet paper in the floors and on the back of toilets. Two toilets in rooms 204 and 301 were seen to have feces sitting in them, clogged, and inoperable. Room 301 toilet was overflowing onto the floor. The toilet in room 303 was seen to have a small leak around the base of the toilet with standing water. Please have these restrooms cleaned and toilets repaired. If toilets can not be repaired, please block off those restrooms until repairs can be made.	3/2/2022	3/1/2022	No

R911.6	No	Several bedrooms were seen in disarray. Rooms had clothes laying on the floor, drink containers, and multiple empty food wrappers. Staff report that rooms are supposed to be cleaned by the residents in the morning and staff are supposed to ensure they are clean prior to leaving for breakfast each morning. Due to the state of the room staff stated that they do not believe room checks were conducted by staff today. Additionally, the facility reports that the agency is in the process of hiring a full-time housekeeper. Please ensure that bedrooms are cleaned, and staff/residents are educated on the importance of ensuring that they remain tidy.	3/2/2022	3/1/2022	No
