Incident Description:

A patient reported on 3/24/21 to his therapist that IC [REDACTED] had been trying to elope and that when he ran out the door, IS [REDACTED] stuck out his arm and "clothes lined" him. When IC [REDACTED] was asked about this incident, he stated that the IS [REDACTED] did stick his arm out and that he had fallen to the ground, but that he was fine.

On 3/28/21, IC [REDACTED] wrote a statement that said the following: IS [REDACTED] grabbed me by the neck, picked me up, and slammed me.

IS [REDACTED] statement: IC [REDACTED] bolted for the door when I opened it. As a reflex, I reached out my arm to intercept him and keep him from eloping. He ran into my arm and stumbled to the ground. He was helped up and redirected back inside.

Staff 1 statement: I was walking toward the unit and saw IC [REDACTED] trying to elope. IS [REDACTED] put his arm in the doorway to stop him from running outside.

Staff 2 statement: I and another staff were standing in our unit doorway (across from Pine Ridge) I was talking to the staff when I heard a noise. When I turned to look, I saw IC [REDACTED] on the ground. He got up and went back inside. IC [REDACTED] tried to elope like 4 times that evening. IC [REDACTED] made a comment on the last time that we got him back that he was going to make allegations on staff members.
