What is PABSS?

PABSS stands for Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security. It is a federally funded project to assist beneficiaries in returning to the workforce.

PABSS staff can assist you with information about programs, resources, and other supports necessary to gain or maintain employment. We can advocate on your behalf to handle barriers to employment. We can assist you in obtaining reasonable accommodations in the workplace. And we can refer you to the right benefits counselor, so that you can stay informed about how work affects your Social Security benefits.

- Do you receive SSI or SSDI?
- Would you like to return to work?
- Are you concerned about work affecting your benefits?
- Did you know that there are work incentives?
- Are you having problems at work and need advocacy or legal services?

PABSS advocacy is a free service provided to beneficiaries who wish to return to work. If your ultimate goal is obtaining employment, call us. We can help!
