Agency Name: Youth Home

Agency Number: 128

Type of Facility: PRTF

Facility License Type: Regular

Type of Incident: Self-harm

Incident Description: Client [REDACTED] attended staffing group within the hour of being admitted to Youth Home. He was very limit testing, disrespectful to peers/staff/therapists and noncompliant. Staff asked patient multiple times to stay focused and listen to the group. He then started cursing and was asked to leave the group and return to his bedroom due to the lack of respect he had for the therapist, peers and staff. Once in his bedroom he was still irate and said, "I didn't do anything!" He then sat on his bed, grabbed the 3-ring binder he received from admissions, and attempted to use the metal to self harm. Staff placed client [REDACTED] in a personal restraint. [REDACTED] struggled with staff. Staff attempted to calm [REDACTED] while escorting him to the seclusion area. [REDACTED] released from restraint at this time to enter locked seclusion. [REDACTED] is yelling and cursing at staff. [REDACTED] calmed down and contracted for safety. [REDACTED] produced a fidget toy. [REDACTED] again began to argue with staff and began hitting his head on the wall. [REDACTED] then began rubbing the fidget toy on his wrist. Staff entered room to remove object. [REDACTED] became physically aggressive and attempted to fight staff. [REDACTED] tried to headbutt, bite. Client elbowed a staff member in the jaw. Staff were talking to client to try and help calm. [REDACTED] was able to calm down and stated he would take something by mouth to calm him down. Zydis 10mg ODT administered voluntarily by mouth. Client was able to be released from the seclusion room. Client has no new complaint of injury from this incident. Client transferred to ER at 5:30PM to rule out drug toxicity, then client [REDACTED].

Agency's Interim Corrective Action: Client transported to ER [REDACTED].
