Suicidal Threats

On 3/6/22 at approximately 1512 hours I was dispatched to the Colonel Glenn Youth Home located at 20400 Colonel Glenn Road to assist MEMS with a 12 year old male that had threatened suicide.

Upon arrival I spoke with Stacie Prime and she stated that [REDACTED] had been acting out since 0830 hours. Stacie stated that between 0830 hours and 1208 hours [REDACTED] had to be restrained a total of seven times until he could calm down. Stacie stated that at one point [REDACTED] placed a sheet around his body and said "I'm going to kill myself". Stacie stated that the facility nurse was notified of the incident.

I made contact with [REDACTED] and he was calm laying on his bed. When Stacie advised [REDACTED] to get up and put his shoes on he complied. Mems unit 88 arrived on scene and [REDACTED] was transported to Methodist Behavioral Hospital in Maumelle.

I provided Stacie with the incident number and advised her that a report would be completed.
