Narrative:

Self-report from Youth Home: Client [redacted] resides in Rose House PRTF at Youth Home. Client [redacted] woke up feeling sad and wrapped [redacted] clothing around [redacted] neck in attempts to cut off oxygen. Staff immediately removed the clothing and notified the nurse. Client then asked to make a phone call to [redacted] mother. Client's mother stated, "You are disturbing my peace and messing up my day." Client then grabbed a belt and wrapped it around [redacted] neck. Staff immediately intervened and removed the belt. Nurse's note: Patient presents at the nurse station. Alert and oriented to person, place, time, and event. Patient has no bruising, erythema, or scratches noted. Respirations 18 BPM. Orders received from on call physician for front of house and eyeball precautions. Pt responds back to nurse the importance of alerting to staff suicidal thoughts before acting on them. Patient currently reports anxiety. Will continue to monitor. Facility visited 6/14/22. Video reviewed from: 6/11/22 at 10:30AM to 10:45AM. Video reviewed is from the recreation room at Rose House. Client [redacted] is seen having a Facetime video with [redacted] mother. After Facetime video client grabs a belt off the counter to [redacted] right. Client puts the belt around [redacted] neck but does not tighten it. One staff is seen and heard counseling client. 3 other staff show up towards end of video. Client gives the belt to staff without incident.
