STANDARD REVIEWED	DISCUSSION/OBSERVATION	COMPLIANCE DATE	DATE CORRECTED
	Location: Pine Ridge - PRTF Cottage - Millcreek of Arkansas. On 6.25.22 at approximately 1156, [redacted] eloped from Magnolia Hall. [redacted] was able to push the door of the unit open and elope from Magnolia Hall. [redacted] jumped a fence and entered a wooded area as [redacted] eloped from campus. Staff followed behind but lost line of sight quickly as [redacted] entered the wooded area. Search protocol was initiated but staff members were unable to locate the resident. On 6.26.2022, Millcreek was contacted by the Fordyce Police Department, informing Millcreek that [redacted] was in the custody of Magnolia Police Department. Millcreek obtained custody of [redacted] and [redacted] was returned to campus at 1417. Upon return, [redacted] was placed on elopement precautions to prevent future occurrences. Facility visited 6/30/22 from 9:00AM-11:00AM. Upon arrival to Magnolia Hall, front door which client eloped from was locked and unable to open from outside without a key. Once inside, front door was unable to be opened without a key from the inside. The door did have a little give when pushed and/or pulled. [redacted] interviewed at Magnolia Hall, where client currently resides, and client eloped from. Client claims that previously, the front door was able to be opened by pushing on it, even when locked. Client states that [redacted] pushed the front door open and walked about "15 miles" which took him approximately "2 hours". Client states that [redacted] got on a stationary train which shortly began to move. Client states that [redacted] jumped from the train while moving. When asked if client was hurt "I landed lucky". Client then states that "a guy helped me out" (when asked client reported hitch-hiking) to get to Magnolia where [redacted] was recognized by Police and ultimately returned to Millcreek. Client was given the opportunity to voice any additional issues or concerns at which point [redacted] voiced complaints about staff. Client was informed and confirmed being aware of how to follow protocol for reporting facility complaints. Risk Mgmt. Chris Butler contacted maintenance who stated that replacement door is being ordered for Magnolia Hall. No deficiencies in minimum licensing standards noted regarding this incident.
