Incident Type: Licensing

Report Description: A peer picked up keys that fell out of a staff's member jacket. The peer gave the keys to the Client (██████████). ██████████ and a peer (██████████) eloped from the facility. Police were called. The two Clients were brought back to the facility on 8/27/2022 by Baxter County police.

Interim Action Narrative: Resident was placed on elopement precaution.

Maltreatment Narrative:

Outcome:

Licensing Narrative: Licensing Specialist Rice viewed camera footage for 8/26/2022 from 9 pm to 9:30 pm. Specialist observed residents walking in the hallway going from their bedroom to the bathroom. Close to the end of the camera footage, two residents that were not observed earlier in the camera footage, ran through the door and out of the front door. It appeared that they had a key fob and that is how they escaped the hall doorway and out the door of the facility. It is unknown what staff member the key fob came from due to the dishonesty of the residents.
