Facility Name: Dacus RTC

Facility Number: 108

Facility Type: Residential

Incident Type: Licensing

Report Description: Client [REDACTED] was moving room to room causing property destruction by kicking bedroom windows, bending plexiglass with attempts to break it, and pulling down the attached structures off the bedroom walls. After breakfast,the client behaviors worsened as he and another client attempted to take staff keys, kicked the windows of the dayroom and cafeteria, as well as kicked in the door leading from the dayroom to the cafeteria. As staff blocked the doorways the client was trying to open, the client [REDACTED] verbalized threats to staff "Don't put your hands on me, I'm not afraid to swing on you again" and "Don't fucking touch me, I will beat your ass." Client eventually charged at staff punching staff multiple times in the head and in other body sections. Also, while another client was in a restraint, client [REDACTED] grabbed one of the staff members, allowing the other client to escape the restraint. Due to the escalation of exhibited aggression, Bono Police department was called to the facility. Five police officers escorted the client [REDACTED] and the other client from the facility. Follow up-[REDACTED] return from the Craighead County Juvenile Detention Center on 08/29/22 at 1:30pm.
