Report Description: Client () was moving room to room causing property destruction by kicking bedroom windows, bending plexiglass with attempts to break it, and pulling down the attached structures off the bedroom walls. After breakfast, the client behaviors worsened as he and another peer attempted to take staff keys, kicked the windows of the dayroom and cafeteria, as well as kicked in the door leading from the dayroom to the cafeteria. As staff blocked the doorways the client was trying to open. Client eventually charged at staff punching staff multiple times in the head and in other body sections. The Client was placed in a restraint. While the client was in a restraint, a peer grabbed staff, allowing the Client to escape the restraint. Due to the escalation of exhibited aggression, Bono Police department was called to the facility. Five police officers escorted the client and the other peer from the facility. Follow up- will return from the Craighead County Juvenile Detention Center on 08/29/22 at 1:30pm. His Crawford County probational officer was notified.
