Narratives

Name: 329 Narrative Author: 157 - Rivas, Josue Supervisor: 67 - Gateley, Paul Date Created: 06/01/2022 17:43

Description:

On Wednesday, June 1, 2022 at approximately 1506hrs I responded to Ozark Guidance Center (2466 S 48TH St) in reference to a disturbance. The caller stated they had a resident that was assaulting staff members

Upon arrival I made contact with the suspect and identified her as [REDACTED] I noticed [REDACTED] was yelling as several individuals were restraining her. I noticed four staff members were attached to each limb of [REDACTED] to keep her from moving around. [REDACTED] yelled that she gets triggered when people touch her due to being raped in the past.

I attempted to speak with [REDACTED] but she was very agitated. After a few minutes I was able to get [REDACTED] to calm down. I asked [REDACTED] if I had the staff get off of her if she would speak with me. I asked the staff to stop restraining her. I spoke with [REDACTED] and asked her what had happened.

[REDACTED] stated one of the triggers of her trauma is the smell of smoke. [REDACTED] stated she was telling the staff about the smoke but they did not do anything about it. [REDACTED] stated she became agitated and was yelling at the staff. [REDACTED] stated she yelled at them not to touch her as that's another trigger for her. [REDACTED] stated the staff proceeded to touch her despite her telling them not to. [REDACTED] stated she attempted to break free from the staff but they restrained her by having everyone jump on her. [REDACTED] stated the facility does not use restrain system, but instead uses people to restrain individuals who misbehave.

I then spoke with the staff members who were injured by [REDACTED] I spoke with Darian McNeill (W/M DOB 2/18/93) and Jason Golden (B/M DOB 9/16/94) both McNeil and Golden stated they responded there to assist the other nurses as [REDACTED] was upset. McNeill stated he checked the room [REDACTED] was at and could not smell the odor of smoke she was complaining of. Both of them stated [REDACTED] attempted to jump into the nurse station. Both Golden and McNeill stated they proceeded to restrain [REDACTED] where she kicked punched both of them. McNeil stated he wished to press charges. Golden stated he wanted to press charges at first but then he stated he did not. I did not observe any injuries on wither Golden or McNeill.

I spoke to [REDACTED] again and she stated she wished to press charges on Golden and McNeill for "touching her" [REDACTED] had been admitted to this behavioral unit for treatment. I believed, as she was now calmed and cooperative, she no longer posed a threat to staff and she could continue being treated at the facility. [REDACTED] was consoled about her behavior. I took the information for the report and ended my contact with [REDACTED]. End of narrative. JR329.

Description:

On 07/05/2022, I spoke with one of the victim Jason Golden and he stated that he does not want to press charges, but he did state that the suspect has been discharged and is not longer at the facility. I called the other victim Darian McNeil several times but he did not answer my phone call and did not return my call.

I then called Ozark Guidance Center and spoke with Anne Sheetz and she was not able to locate anyone with the name of [REDACTED] at all. Sheetz checked the discharge paperwork and was not able to locate anyone with the name of [REDACTED] Sheetz stated that she will check again and if she locate [REDACTED] she would call me back.

At this time the reporting officer interviewed all the parties involved and as per the investigation, I will forward this case to Washington County Juvenile Prosecutor Attorney for review.
