

Inclusion is a Natural State

The Arkansas Alliance for Disability Advocacy works to make Arkansas a place where every person is fully included in the life of their communities.

We train self-advocates, family members, and allies in advocacy, leadership, voting, and public policy, so each person has the education and tools they need to create a state powered by inclusion, equity, and respect. The disability rights movement needs YOU!!

Arkansas Alliance for Disability Advocacy
DISABILITY RIGHTS ARKANSAS

The Alliance consists of three advocacy projects:

Self-Advocates Network Development (SAND)

Provides advocacy training and leadership development to people with disabilities across Arkansas.

Community of Champions

Educates youth with and without disabilities, parents, community members, and legislative leaders on the need for disability advocacy and how to be active in creating positive change.

Partners in Policymaking

Extensive monthly training, with national speakers, educating participants on the effective way to develop relationships with elected officials to directly influence public policy impacting people with disabilities.
