Report Description: There is not enough staff per resident ratio on many occasions. I was working on the what they call the Blue Unit by myself with 9 residents during the time period that I was supposed to wake up the residents starting at 7:00am - 8:00am. I am very concerned for the safety of the residents. I witnessed several fights in the last week that causes me with major concerns for the residents. They do not provide a therapeutic environment to the residents.
