Maltreatment Narrative:

Licensing Narrative: On 04.03.23, clients [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] eloped from the facility at 2030. The residents were leaving free time at the gym, and [REDACTED] and a peer snuck out, running behind the gym and running through the gate. Faulkner County Sheriff's Department was called, and there was a BOLO placed on the resident and the peer. The residents were returned to the facility by the staff on 04.04.23 at 0943am. Phone call made to Jyllyn Perkins 4/4/23. Ms. Perkins stated that Faulkner Co. Sheriff's Dept. was called 4/3/23 at 9PM (2100). Email sent to facility 4/5/23 to inquire if there is video footage of this incident. Email received 4/5/23 that camera system tower was struck by lightning and that facility has no access to camera footage until it is repaired. 4/5/2023- Program Coordinator requested the police report and 911 call from the Conway police report and received them on 4/6/2023 for review with the specialist. Facility visited 4/10/23. Area observed where clients eloped from. The fence is currently down due to construction. There was no fence erect at the time of the elopement. Clients did not elope through a gate, but through an open area directly outside of the gym door. Mr. Wiltshire and Ms. Perkins explained that while construction is underway in this area, the fence will be down. There has since been a wooden barrier built in the area with no fence. Clients [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have been placed on elopement precautions.
