Incident Type: Licensing

Report Description: Upon my return to work from sickness, I was alerted to an incident regarding the following: Resident [REDACTED] tied two of her roommate's shirts around her neck during hygiene time. Staff intervened and removed the shirts immediately. Resident was noted to have some redness on her neck but no further injuries were assessed by the RN on duty. Resident was alert and talking to staff, her vitals were within normal limits. Resident stated that she sees bloody demons that tell her to kill herself and also stated another resident told her to self-harm in the shower. Actions Taken: Physician was notified and ordered Resident to be placed on suicide precautions, level of observation was increased to 1:1 at all times, and placed in paper scrubs until able to contract for safety.

Interim Action Narrative: Resident was assessed by the nurse. She was placed on suicide precautions, level of observation increased to 1:1 at all times, and placed in paper scrubs until able to contract for safety.
