Licensing Specialist completed buildings and grounds at EMCC on the following areas: the dorms (North, South, New, and East, administration hall, dining room area, playground, and nurse's station. Licensing Specialist observed two (2) vans on the grounds. The lawn was well kept with no debris. There were staff members walking on the grounds between the two (2) buildings.

Licensing Specialist was escorted by Mr. Mike (Lead Program Manager). The administration hall was clean. Licensing Specialist observed different staff members walking in the hall or in their offices. Licensing Specialist observed housekeeping cleaning the dining room area.

Licensing Specialist observed the playground area. Day Treatment residents were outside on the playground during this visit.

There were no residents present during the walkthrough of the dorms. EMCC residents were in the classrooms. Licensing Specialist observed the cozy corner, bedrooms, laundry room, recreational closet, storage cabinets (hygiene products, games, movies, and cleaning products), bathrooms, the rage room, and day areas of the dorms.

All bathrooms were clean with a fresh smell of cleaning products. The bedrooms were organized, and some beds were without bedding due to it being laundry day for those residents. Licensing Specialist observed wall decorations (fat heads) on the walls of the dorms and zone regulations. Each dorm has their own pitcher to supply water for the residents. Mr. Mike informed Licensing Specialist that each resident has their own water bottle and are cleaned daily.

Licensing Specialist observed the following documentation on the walls: residents' rights, emergency escape plan, menu, weekend incentives, summer and weekend schedules.

Licensing Specialist reviewed MARs for the following residents:
