Interim Action Narrative:

Maltreatment Narrative:

Licensing Narrative: 7/27/2023- Program Coordinator submitted a FOIA request to the Little Rock PD for the incident report mentioned in this case.

Facility visited 7/27/23 and camera footage reviewed of incident involving client [REDACTED] getting hit in the nose by a chair thrown by another client. Staff/client ratio 3:13 in day area. Peer who throws chair is calmly playing cards with another client. Peer calmly stands up, grabs a plastic chair off a stack of chairs, and throws it in the middle of the day area. The chair bounces and hits client [REDACTED] who is laying in the floor. It appears as if [REDACTED] looked up right as the chair bounced in her direction. Staff immediately respond to peer who threw the chair and client [REDACTED]

Police report obtained regarding [REDACTED] guardian pressing charges on client who threw the chair. Email sent 7/28/23 to inquire if client was arrested for charges. Received email from Craig Gammon of UMCH 7/28/23 as follows: I do not believe she was arrested. She was admitted to acute hospitalization at [REDACTED] after the incident. She has or will be discharged from our program at MCH. The guardian of the injured client has contacted the LRPD and is in the process of pressing charges, but we do not know the current status of that action.
