Maltreatment Narrative:

Licensing Narrative: On 05.20.23 at approximately 8:30am, client [REDACTED] was sent to Dallas County Medical Center for assessment after a physical confrontation with peers. Nursing assessment reflected 10/10 mouth pain resulting from being punched in the mouth. Assessment revealed that teeth were intact but displaced. After assessment at DCMC, he was referred to Arkansas Children's Hospital. ACH Diagnosis: [REDACTED]

██████████ He was ordered to receive the care of a dentist ASAP. This visit is scheduled to occur on 05.22.23. Phone call made 5/22/23 to Chris Butler of Millcreek who stated there is video of the hallway but that the fight takes place in a client bedroom. Facility visited 5/23/23 in response to self-reported incident of client ██████ being assaulted by peers resulting in dental injury. Video reviewed of hallway of incident. Staff are seen in the hallway then entering the dayroom entry way, seemingly to address something taking place in the dayroom. No video of inside this dayroom available. 3 staff are seen in the video, 2 staff escorting client ██████ out of the dayroom. Another video review yields client ██████ continuing being escorted by the two staff and being attended to by 2 nurses in the hallway. Client ██████ was reassigned living quarters from Tiger Hall to Pebble Creek after this incident. Client ██████ could not be interviewed during today's visit due to reported current, ongoing, dysregulated behavior from client ██████ today. Per Risk Management, Chris Butler, several attempts have been made to assign client GF living quarters that will ensure his safety.
