Licensing Specialist spoke with Ms. Charlotte Lockert, CEO, Antione Jackson, Clinical Director, and Clifton Williams, Program Director, regarding ELS Case #015309.

Licensing Specialist informed before the incident, resident was being disruptive, throwing chairs, and disrespectful toward staff. It was reported that resident's peer felt that resident was being disrespectful and that was a trigger to the peer. In return the resident's peer hit the resident.

On Station 1 Hall, Licensing Specialist observed resident in a restraint against the wall, ratio 1:1. Licensing Specialist observed four (4) and then five (5) staff members on Station 1. Licensing Specialist observed the male staff member trying to observe what was going on across the hall. Licensing Specialist was unable to observe what was taking place across the hall.

Licensing Specialist observed a male staff member move the resident down the hallway for a female staff member to take over the restraint. Resident was observed to what appeared to be defiant toward being placed in a restraint with the female staff member. While in a restraint with the female staff member, Licensing Specialist observed a peer run up to resident and hit him, ratio 1:3. Licensing Specialist observed another staff member enter the area and escort the peer away from the area.
