Licensing Specialist completed buildings and grounds at the Chestnut House. The following areas were observed: comfort room, seclusion room, staff bathroom, bedrooms, bathrooms, storage closet, game room, visitation/therapy room, laundry room, library, and dining area.

Licensing Specialist was escorted by Mr. [REDACTED], PRTF Lead Unit Manager. No residents were present during the walkthrough. Mr. [REDACTED] informed Licensing Specialist that two (2) residents were at the house ([REDACTED]). One resident was unable to attend school due to behavioral problems and the other resident being ill.

Walking to the building, Licensing Specialist observed the grounds near the house. Leaves were falling from the trees and the grounds were maintained. Licensing Specialist observed parked cars and facility vans on the parking lot.

Walking into Chestnut House, Licensing Specialist observed new flooring (wood panel like design) throughout the house. The flooring has been repaired, base boards have been replaced, and walls were painted.

Emergency escape plans were posted by each exit door. There was a total of three (3) fire extinguishers located in the house. Residents' rights are posted in the dining room area. A water fountain is in the common area. Phones are located at the staff desk area and the milieu. The game room will be located by the therapy/visitation room. Two (2) cabinets are placed by the milieu for residents to check out their belongings.

A date has not been determined when residents will move back into Chestnut. Mr. [REDACTED] informed Licensing Specialist that he would keep Licensing updated on the move.
