Narrative:

Licensing specialist and program manager visited the facility and reviewed 6 children's records to include:

904.1 (g)- No treatment plan or treatment plan reviews in the chart. The facility was able to produce signed copies of the treatment plan and reviews which were then added to the chart.

All required information was reviewed within in the children's records to include restraint packets and physician's orders.

It was noted during the review that all master treatment plans do not contain a plan to ensure the educational needs of the child are met as required in standard 903.5.d. Program manager and licensing specialist discussed this with management at the facility. The facility management reports they will request to add educational goals to the treatment plan from corporate. The facility reports they were following guidance separating educational reports from the treatment plan from other entities.
