Report Description: On 10/03/2024 two residents; [REDACTED] resident in [REDACTED] custody, and [REDACTED] resident in [REDACTED] custody both climbed onto the awning and climbed through the fence in the area near the cell phone tower. They were on the awning at 1845 and then left our property at approx 1912, the police were called at 1916. Staff had eyes on the residents the entire time and was able to get [REDACTED] to walk back to the property rather quickly. [REDACTED] stayed off the property but in the sight of staff for approx 30 minutes. We called the police back to let them know we were with the residents and able to get them back inside without any issues. Both residents are on RTU and elopement precautions x 24 hours. Staff were with them the entire time outside trying to process with residents and were already outside the fence waiting on them so the residents were never out of staff sight.
