Interim Action Narrative:

Maltreatment Narrative:

Licensing Narrative: 10.7.24-Licensing Specialist emailed Facility for discharge paperwork and how the wound reopened? 10.8.24- Licensing Specialist and Program Manager went to facility regarding this case and others. When discussing this incident, we were made aware that the camera in the 300-hall small dayroom does not work. The Facility has already input a service request for this, and only upper management is aware as to keep everyone safe. The incident was described as another resident coming up to this child and punching him specifically in the wound. It happened quickly and the boys were separated immediately, and both put on assault precautions.
