Report Description: Resident, [REDACTED] eloped from the property at approximately 15:36:20 after transitioning from the gym. Staff were engaging with Residents right after transition outside and Resident swiftly walked behind Staff and then ran to the breezeway. He then jumped onto the breezeway, pulling himself up and went onto the main residential roof. Staff noticed Resident missing at 15:37:15 (55 seconds later). A code green was called and Staff support responded. At this time, Resident then went off the residential roof, onto the breezeway facing the community, leaping off. Staff went in the direction of the Resident and Forrest City Police Department was notified. Resident was safely returned at 15:44:00 resulting in a time 7 mins and 40 seconds from elopement to safe return. Resident placed on elopement precautions and interviewed by the Safety team. Reinforcement education will be provided to staff involved.
