Report Description: [REDACTED] - On 3/4/25 Resident started throwing shoes, trash and attempt to throw a chair at staff. Resident began walking up to multiple staff and nurses punching and slapping them. Staff were trying to give resident her personal space but resident refused and kept targeting staff and nurses. Resident was able to force her way into the utility closet where she then sat on the floor trying to hit her head on the wall. Staff placed their hand behind her head to keep resident from hurting herself and resident started punching using closed fist both staff and a nurse. She later complained of pain to her L hand after hitting staff members. This was reported to the APRN, order for x-ray was obtained. X-ray was completed in house on 3/6/25, X-ray results are negative for fracture or dislocation. Upon assessment today, resident is able to use her hand without any issues. Primary therapist met with resident on 3/6/25 to review behavior contract and aggression toward staff and peers.
